

Join us to celebrate the first three decades of Sonoma Land Trust's work to protect the land forever

Cheer SLT progress with friends and supporters

Groove to the swingy country bluegrass jazz of the Modern Hicks, reuniting especially for us

Tour riparian restoration along Bidwell Creek

Delight in the 19th century landmark barn originally built for thoroughbreds

Savor appetizers and birthday cake

Toast the honor rolls of landowners, charter members and special friends key to our land-saving

*Bring a sun hat or parasol and your favorite folding chair if you like.
Sorry, no pets.*

Wouldn't miss it!
